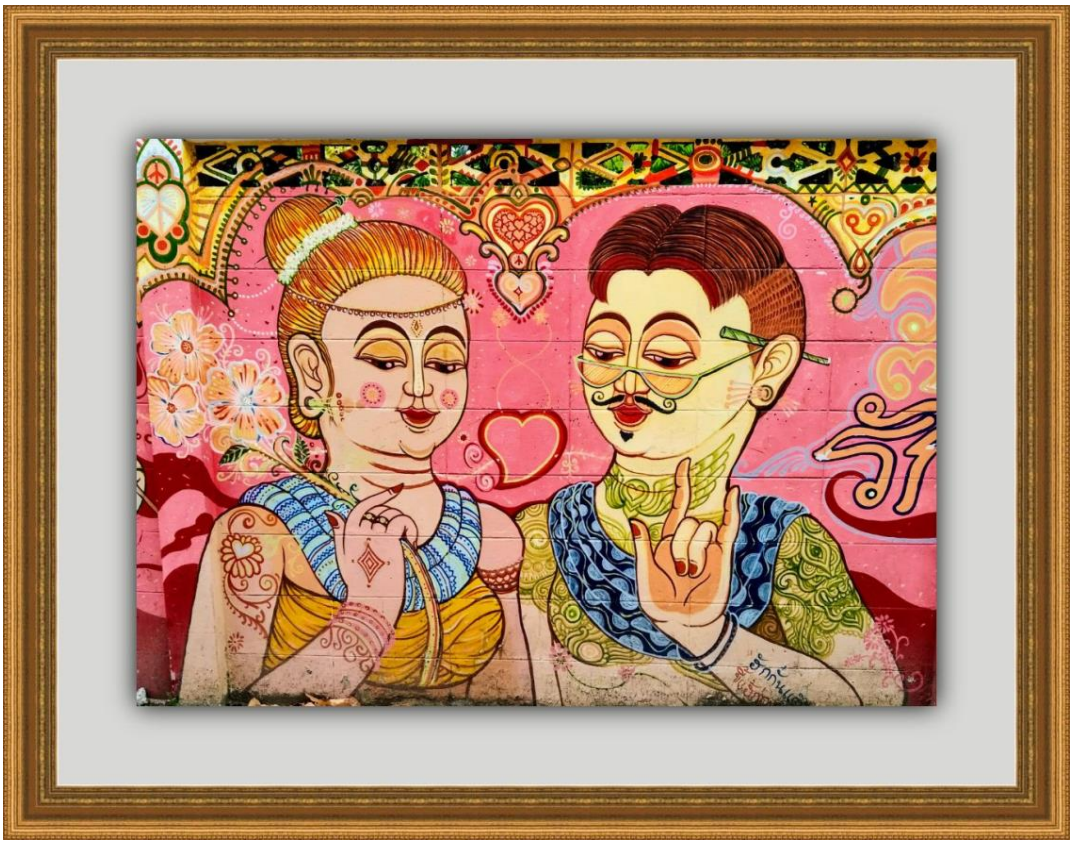
Chiang Mai framed street art exhibition



Albert Durall Moysset

Picture book of street art from Chiang Mai. In it you will find several photos of street art and the framed version (freely colored or processed by the author of this book). The author, an obsessive framer, tries to demonstrate that street art can be as good as the art galleriy one. Beware: this is an incomplete and random selection. Walking through the old town of Chiang Mai, you will discover many more beautiful paintings.

Incomplete selection of several street paintings i picked up during the covid-19 lockdown. Posteriorly I processed them using two image applications and virtual framed.

April – May 2020

You can find several of these street art paintings in Ratvithi road, (not far from wat Phra Singh) or in old Chiang mai little streets that I don't remember the name.

Warning: This image catalogue don’t pretend to be serious. In Chiang Mai there’s lots of street wonderful paintings that I can’t include here, This is only an informal divertimento.
